LITERARY FEAST

March 19-20, 2010

Literary Feast, now in its 22nd year, is a two-day celebration of books and authors, during which authors, bloggers, librarians, educators and book-lovers of all ages mingle and share their love of words. Comprised of literary, social and educational elements, Literary Feast has showcased more than 300 authors since its inception.

This is an interactive educational outreach program in which authors visit local high schools throughout Broward County to discuss their life and work and inspire young writers to pursue their literary dreams. A judged writing contest is held and over 1,500 students participate. (Friday, March 19th - Morning/Afternoon)

Authors meet one-on-one and in group settings to greet thousands of enthusiastic booklovers throughout the day. The daylong series includes panel discussions, lectures, book sales and signings. The event is free and open to the public. (Saturday, March 20th - Day)

A NIGHT OF LITERARY FEASTS

The premier literary fund-raising event begins with a two hour cocktail reception, book sales and signing, followed by a series of sophisticated dinner parties hosted in fabulous private homes and upscale South Florida restaurants. Each intimate dinner has an individual guest author in attendance. (Saturday, March 20th - Evening)

Proceeds benefit the Broward Public Library Foundation, which is committed to enhancing the collections, programs and services of the Broward County Library system beyond the means of public funding. The Broward County Library is the ninth largest library system in the United States. For additional information, please call (954) 357-7384 or visit www.LiteraryFeastOnline.org
